

C1503

---

Leonardo da Vinci paints the "MONA LISA"

1503

(~~July~~ Aug)

Half of Columbus's crew mutinied after a few months. He sent a canoe to Hispaniola for a ship. It was nearly a year away.

He loaded all his crew (including the mutineers) and made it back to Hispaniola & then to Spain

1503

216th Pope
Siena, Italy

PIUS III

1503-1513

217th Pope

Julius II

Savona, Italy, laid the foundation of the BASILICA of St. Peter, was the patron of art and friend of Michael Angelo, Raphael, and other artists. He convened the XVth General Council in the Lateran, Rome, in which the Pragmatic Sanction of the Bourges was solemnly condemned and desires about universities, but among Christian circles and reform work people.

Dec 29, 1503

GARIGLIANO Lava
site near Cassino, central Italy,
of Italian victory over French forces of King Louis
XII

Nov 1943 - May 44 great battlefield
during Allied drive on Rome
in WW II

1503

Pope Alexander III died; Julius II Pope.

War between Louis<sup>XII</sup> and Ferdinand; Gonsalvo de Cordova, the "Great Captain," wins battle of Garigliano
James IV of Scotland marries Margaret Tudor; reign of the Stuart Succession

1503

Kopernik attended University of Cracow & had studied at Padua and Bologna. In 1503 he received his doctorate in canon law at Ferrara

1503

---

Roderigo Borgia was Pope Alexander VI
(1492 - 1503), Died 1503

He was the father of Cesare Borgia.

C1503-06

La Gioconda

Mona Lisa

painting. only work to immortalizing mysterious smile of Mona Lisa by Italian Renaissance painter
Leonardo da Vinci (1452 -
May 2, 1519)

1500s

Starting in 1500s, as tunics shortened to waist length, breeches became outerwear and nobility adopted close-fitting bias-cut silk or linen underwear called trousers or stossers. Peasants still wore loin cloths.

Underwear offered men & women not only warmth but also a

British Britain - valuable settlements and the skin - Fragment nothing was not a high priority among Europeans until the 18th century

1503→1507

It took Leonardo da Vinci three 4 years to paint the MONA LISA.

1503

1912 Dates J-BK

Columbus was shipwrecked
at Jamaica.

1503

1431-1503

Alexander VI (1431-1503), Italian Pope
Born Rodrigo Borgia in 1431 at Valencia, Spain, he bought his way to the papacy by bribing just enough cardinals to win election on Aug. 11, 1492.
At the time that he was crowned, Alexander was the father of at least seven out-ofwedlock children, four by his longtime mistress Vannozza dei Cattanei. At the age of 62 he added 16-yr-old Giulia

Famous to his day list of losses, and their relationship during Alexander's reign as Pope was no secret to churchmen or to the rest of the world.
He fathered at least 10 children including CESARE and LORENZIO

Bo261A

1503

1912 Dates J-BK

St. Peter's commenced 1503 by Julius II under direction of Bramante, but present form of the basilica is due entirely to Michelangelo

Canterbury Cathedral
After the fire, the rebuilt Gothic Cathedral was completed

1503

Jews return to Lithuania

1503

1912 Dates J-BK

Sugar refining introduced into Europe by a Venetian

1912 Dates J-BK

1503-1513

JULIUS II was <sup>Italy</sup> pope.

1503-1504

1912 Dates. J-BK

English shillings were 1st made.

1503

King James IV of Scotland and Margaret Tudor of England were wed.

1503-1566

Northadamus, astrologer